THE 32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
11TH NOVEMBER 2018
REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Remembrance Day is observed around the world since the end of World War I. It recalls the formal end of hostilities in 1918 "at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month." King George V on 7th November 1919 dedicated this day as a day of official remembrance for the members of the armed forces who had died and has been extended to include those who died in World War II and in all other conflicts since.

The red poppy has become the familiar emblem of Remembrance Day thanks to the poem "In Flanders Field". Poppies bloomed across the worst battlefields in Flanders, their brilliant red colour an appropriate symbol for the blood of the fallen. Traditionally Laurence Binyon's poem 'For the Fallen' is read at Remembrance Day parades.

This year sees the 100th anniversary of Armistice, marking the day and moment when hostilities ceased at the end of the First World War.

The traditional procession through Culcheth starting from the British Legion Club will precede the Service at Newchurch Parish Church at 11.00 am, and there is a service at the War Memorial, Barn Lane, Golborne at 2:30 pm preceded by a procession from the Legh Court car park, Legh Street, Golborne, assembling at 2.15 p.m.

Blessing of Graves. Following straight on from 10.00 am Mass this Sunday, we are holding a Service in All Saints cemetery, and next Sunday 18th November after 8.30 am Mass we shall have a Service in St. Lewis cemetery. I suggest that those who have loved ones buried in the graveyard could bring their flowers to the respective service, and for those who wish to light a candle at the graveside we can provide tealight-style electric candles. After a general word and prayer, I shall visit each of the graves of your loved ones to say a prayer with you for them.

Boiler replacement at St Lewis begins on 19th November and will take up to 2 weeks. There will therefore be no heating, but all Masses will take place as usual. Please come to church prepared for “cooler climes”!

Afternoon Club. The next meeting of the Afternoon Club is this Tuesday, 13th November at 2.00 pm in All Saints Church.

Help required: St Lewis's Grounds on the two Saturdays 17th and 24th November, from 10.30 am.

This is for the Annual Leaf Sweep and the planting of 90 young hedging trees (which we have acquired free from the The Woodland Trust) to make a barrier to the rubbish heap at the bottom of the graveyard.

Please bring spades for the planting and/or rakes, brushes and any cordless leaf blowers for the leaves.

We need a lot of people....all ages! Hot drinks provided.

Why we need more deacons. Archbishop Malcolm will host an evening for men who may be wondering if they are called to be deacons and what the formation involves. Wives, priests and deacons also welcome.

7.30-9.00 pm on Tuesday 20th November (refreshments from 7 pm) at St Mary's Parish Centre, Broadfield Drive, Leyland PR25 1PD

Reminder for First Holy Communion candidates. Session 3 of the Sacramental Programme takes place on 29th November at All Saints Church

All Saints Christmas Fayre. We are still short of volunteer helpers !! The Fayre takes place this year on 1st December and there are baskets/boxes in both church porches for contributions to the stalls. We still need more new and unwanted gifts for the tombola, bottles, toiletries, costume jewellery and empty gift bags.

Please could we have some offers of home-made cakes as we have lost some of our bakers this year.

Raffle tickets are now on sale in both churches.

We plan to make the Grave Pots on Monday 26th November in the morning, and all day on Tuesday 27th.,,if unfinished, then Thursday morning also. We need lots of helpers, please, with secateurs!

We would be grateful for offers of greenery, eg conifer and small-leaved shrubs (no laurel). Please bring to church on the weekend of 24th/25th.

Mass Intentions. Because of the popularity of certain Mass times, and to avoid intentions being too long delayed, it will be necessary sometimes to share Intentions at a Mass. This will also be true when more than one Sanctuary Lamp request is received for a specific date.

CAFOD Fun Run. The 35th CAFOD Fun Run will take place on Thursday 27th December at Wavertree Athletics Centre ,Liverpool L15 4LE. Registration will be from 12pm and the runners and walkers start at 1pm on the 4km or 8km run and the 2km walk. This is a great way to support CAFOD's vital life-saving work overseas (and get out after Christmas!) and a chance to do some light training now!
