5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

7TH APRIL 2019

Parish Mass Book, page 176; Order of Mass, page 7

The message of today's Gospel, where Jesus shows mercy to a sinner, challenges us all to look at our own attitudes and our tendency to judge others. He looks around for those who will condemn the woman but they have disappeared. He will not condemn her either! He gives her, and us, the freedom to leave behind the things of the past and to go forward in a new and very different kind of way.

God's gift of mercy is the bridge that connects God and man and opens our hearts to a hope of being loved despite our sinfulness. We not only receive mercy from God in Christ but are called as the Church, the brothers and sisters of Christ, to show mercy to others.

Pope Francis puts it like this: " We are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us. Pardoning offences becomes the clearest expression of merciful love, and for us Christians it is an imperative from which we cannot excuse ourselves".

At times it is hard to forgive, but it is a necessary condition for living joyfully. Let us therefore ask the Lord's mercy for our sins so that with pure hearts we may be instruments of his love and mercy to others.

Animate Youth. The National Faith in Action scheme has grown in strength and numbers since it was launched two years ago. This year we have over 1100 young people taking part. To assist with the award we are looking for individuals who might have a few hours free in May/June to help moderate the work the young people have done. No specific background in teaching, youth work or religious studies is necessary; we are simply looking for people who can spend time looking at pieces of work and writing a short affirmation of the work the young person has done; this can be done in your own home and your own time. For info call Fr Simon Gore on 01744 740467 / 740460

There is a wide choice of Easter Cards on sale in both churches
