Last week's joke.....continued. REMEMBER: the Abbot has been told by the young monk that the manuscripts are being copied but not from the originals, so there is the chance that mistakes could be made.....So the Abbott goes down into the dark caves below the monastery where the original manuscripts have been held for hundreds of years. Some hours go by without any sign of the Abbott so the young monk goes looking for him. He finds him down below banging his head against the wall and wailing. "We missed the 'R', we missed the 'R'. His forehead is bleeding and he is crying uncontrollably. The young monk asks 'what's wrong Father?' with a choking voice the Abbott replies 'the word was CELEBRATE!' Was it worth the wait.....?'

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD 21ST APRIL 2019

Today we celebrate the highpoint of the Christian calendar, Easter. The gospel tells us that Mary Magdalen is the first witness to the Resurrection. 'It was still dark ...' when Mary went to the tomb but it was also the 'first day of the week', a new beginning. We might recall those situations in our lives which seemed so dark, where we felt that there was no light at the end of the tunnel.

Let the stone and linen wrappings in this text today represent all that keeps us from being free; all that keeps us captive, emotionally, physically, spiritually, in our broken relationships and struggling communities. However big that stone appears to be, our faith in the resurrection of Jesus tells us that this stone can be moved. Think of all the situations in our world which need transformation, the homelessness crisis, the violence on our streets, our own sorrow. The Easter Gospel shows us that these situations can be transformed, even though it is often a painful journey. Once we experience the resurrection we are called to radical change and to share this transformative joy with others.

Animate Youth. The National Faith in Action scheme has grown in strength and numbers since it was launched two years ago. This year we have over 1100 young people taking part. To assist with the award we are looking for individuals who might have a few hours free in May/June to help moderate the work the young people have done.

No specific background in teaching, youth work or religious studies is necessary; we are simply looking for people who can spend time looking at pieces of work and writing a short affirmation of the work the young person has done; this can be done in your own home and your own time. For info call Fr Simon Gore on 01744 740467 / 740460
