A New Commandment...

In today's Gospel Jesus gives the disciples a new commandment – to love one another. When we truly love one another, we are experiencing something of the divine as love comes from God, love is God and God is love. Surely the command to love one another was nothing new for the disciples and those of their time; the commandment was well known in the Old Testament. But the love Jesus asks of the disciples here (and of us) is to love as he has loved, and that is a controversial love for some.

It is controversial because His love is without restrictions and without exclusion. It is a love of those we may not like, a love of those it is hard to love. This love was too radical for some of the religious leaders and ultimately led to the death of Jesus.

This radically inclusive love is sometimes too much for Christians today also; to love the sinner, to love those on the extreme margins of our society, to love those who have hurt us, to welcome back those who have done wrong, to include all at the table. Let us hear those words of the Gospel more clearly today: 'love one another; just as I have loved you, you must also love one another.' We can dream and work towards a world where this is a reality.

A BIG THANK YOU to all the organisers, buyers, sellers and donors who helped to make last Sunday's Plant sale such a success. We were very impressed by your generosity, which raised £564.35 in much needed funds for church. We also thank Midstream who provided beautiful plants at a generous discount.

First Holy Communion. The first group of our children will receive their First Holy Communion next Saturday at All Saints Church. Please keep the children and their families in your prayers.

Health Update. On or two people have enquired as to the health of Fr Bernard Jackson, Parish Priest of St Mary's, Billinge. I have spoken with Fr Steve, the Episcopal Vicar for Sick and Retired Clergy (yes, we do have a priest keeping an eye on the sick and retired clergy) who stated 'Fr Bernard has been through a serious illness and at this time remains in hospital. When he comes out he will require some time for recuperation. Please do keep him in your prayers.' Parishioners have been ringing the hospital to get an update, but please be reminded: data protection means the hospital cannot give any information out to anyone but his relatives.

Please remember in your prayers: the sick of our community, those who have died recently, including Graham Leonard, Stephen Moss and Thomas Warhurst, and all whose anniversaries occur at this time.
