SUNDAY 14TH DECEMBER 2025 3RD SUNDAY OF ADVENT YEAR A

Parish Mass Book Page 88 Order of Mass P6, The Nicene Creed P11

Gaudete Sunday...takes its name from the first word of the Mass of the day, which means "Rejoice". Rose-coloured vestments are worn for Mass and the pink candle is lit on the Advent Wreath. Today's Gospel presents John as the witness sent from God to bear testimony to the One who is both among us and also is coming. The whole purpose of his life was to play second fiddle to his cousin, Jesus. His preaching and his ministry pointed to someone whose shoes he wasn't even worthy to undo. He was a witness to someone greater than himself, yet his own work prepared the way for the Lamb of God. John the Baptist knew who he wasn't; he made it clear that he was not the Messiah. He also knew who he was. When they asked him who he was he could have built himself up: a great prophet, a wonder-preacher etc... but he simply said that he was a voice. Jesus is described as the "Word", the "message" of God that has existed from all eternity, the fullness of God's plan for humanity. But John says he is simply a passing voice that points to the "Word". In the run-up to Christmas we are challenged as Christians and our challenge is to be the voice of our time that points to something and someone that the world might not see. We are called to be witnesses to Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

In particular we are called to bear witness to the fact that behind all the shallow glossiness of the season and the one-dimensional celebration of indulgence there lies a reality that shocks some and thrills others: our God has taken flesh and become one of us so that he might teach us how to be like him. This is what we prepare for during Advent and celebrate at Christmas. While we do so, we point beyond the obvious to someone and something that only faith can see.

Card Payments Are Here!!!

We are finding more and more that people would like to pay for Cards, Books, Statues etc... from the Piety stall by card... as you no doubt know cash is used very little these days.

We have therefore purchased two card machines, one for each parish. Last weekend we used the one we had set up for All Saints which worked well. The one for St. Lewis will be set up as soon as possible.

If you don't use standing order or the envelopes for your offering and would like to make a donation to the church, please see the ladies on the piety stall and they will help you.

Old Spectacles: Update

Over the past few weeks we have had a few extra donation of old glasses which has brought our total to 530. This was a one off project for run by the Care for Creation team which has now finished so we are unable to collect any more glasses. Thank you to all who donated.
