What is our image of a King? The picture painted by Luke in today's Gospel is hardly the stuff of kingship!

Or is it? This account of Jesus' death gives us an opportunity to lay aside a lot of cultural baggage about kings, leaders and kingdoms. Jesus' kingdom is unlike the one that Pilate or many other earthly leaders know; it is a kingdom built on love, service, justice, reconciliation and peace. Very few of today's leaders can measure up to this: responding to violence with forgiveness, giving those with no hope a reason to hope.

We sometimes ask 'where is God?' Today we are given an answer: God is on the cross, in a broken body, inviting us to look at the world from an entirely different perspective. Today we are given a powerful image of Jesus as Servant King, a beacon light for our society and for the whole world.

'The power of truth, of honesty, of forgiveness – with no frills!
How different the world would be if it was governed by this kind of power.'
