Love and devotion during times of uncertainty and fear

Today's Gospel provides accounts of two important journeys. The Holy Family flee for their lives to Egypt because of the persecution of King Herod who is about to slaughter the Holy Innocents. Joseph shows his trust in God when he listens to the angel who appears to him in a dream (again) and takes action to protect his family.

Mary, Joseph and the child Jesus head south by the coastal road towards Gaza, the desert and Egypt. Parents can begin to imagine the fear Mary has for Jesus. Their future is unknown and they can depend on each other and God only. Their example should serve to encourage and strengthen all families who flee for their lives. Later, they travel back to Nazareth, the home town of Mary, where life will be more stable and Joseph will once again work as a carpenter.
