SUNDAY 17TH OCTOBER 2021

TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY YEAR B

Parish Mass Book Page 146 Order of Mass P6, The Creed P12

The Son of Man came to serve, not to be served

It's a great story that the Gospels give us during these final weeks of the Church's year - the Christian journey in miniature. Jesus and the disciples are on the way to Jerusalem. Their journey across the plains and hills, and down into the valleys, and their experiences and dialogues along the track, pick up many of our experiences as we cover the hills and valleys that mark our journey across life.

Today is the request of James and John to be "big time" in the coming Kingdom: Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory. They are obviously men who dream, desire, and who want to excel. Last week it was the rich man and possessions; this week, it's prestige and power. It's all ego-fed, of course, perhaps inevitable, given that we are all born into a family and a culture that shape us according to themselves. Still, it's what gets us started, gets us moving. But, there is more to life than possessions, power, and prestige, along with the competitiveness, rivalry and violence that they generate. We can be born again, born from above. It's what we seek to celebrate in baptism, but it can happen only as life unfolds, the kind of lived baptism that Jesus experienced, too. As Jesus asked of James and John in today's Gospel: Can you drink the cup that I must drink? Can you be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised? That lived baptism is the way to genuine growth, and to ultimate freedom.

October: The month of the Holy Rosary

October is a period of special devotion to Mary our Mother.

To help us to sanctify this time, the Holy Rosary will be prayed before the weekday morning masses at All Saints church and it also remains available on both St. Lewis and St. Catherine & All Saints websites. To pray via the website, choose the heading 'Videos' and then 'The Rosary'.

This is a wonderful opportunity for us to dedicate our whole community to Mary's love and care. As we reflect with Mary on the mysteries of Christ's early life, His public ministry, His Passion and Resurrection we will grow in our understanding of who we are all called to be as followers of His way.

Piety Stall ~ Christmas Cards

The piety stall at both churches are now selling Christmas cards, diaries and calendars. As you know the piety stalls are only open before mass not after and so if you haven't been to the piety stall this week, please come early enough next week to have time to look what is available before mass.

Tea & Coffee

Tea, Coffee, Biscuits and a good old natter and catch up are available at both churches this weekend after Sunday morning mass. Whilst moving around please wear masks; You can take them off when you are seated...but please don't stand.

St. Lewis - After 9am Mass - this will take place every week and everyone is welcome...the more the merrier!!

All Saints - After 10:30 Mass "This week" in the Francis room and every other week thereafter.

An early reminder— the clocks go back in two week's time: an extra hour in bed, yippee!

This Weeks Joke:

What did the llama say when he got kicked out of the zoo?
"Alpaca my Bag"

Food Bank

Thank you so much to every who was able to bring donations for the food bank since we asked again for donations.

November Pious List

Envelopes and forms for the Pious List will be available in the porches of both churches from this weekend. Please take one, complete the list of your departed relatives and friends that you wish to be remembered at special Masses during November and enclose any mass offering with your petition. Thank you.

Second Collection ~ Sunday 24th October

World Mission Sunday, is celebrated next weekend giving an opportunity for Catholics worldwide to join together to pray for the missionary work of our Church and to give what we can to missionaries and churches overseas that need our help. The World Mission Sunday Collection, which is taken at the request of the Holy Father, for the support of the young and poor churches overseas.

The Refugee Project

Many thanks to those who contributed to the recent batch of goods sent to the centre in Wigan. 61 new garments, 3 blankets and 6 sacks of 'good as new' clothes for adults and children. This brings the total since January 2019 to 698 garments, 55 blankets and 18 sacks— a splendid effort. Also 522 beanies have been sent to the neonatal ward at Preston hospital. Do keep up the good work; we are needed more than ever at present.
